

Rane Group chief gets ISQ award

NT Bureau

Chennai, Nov 30:

Indian Society for Quality (ISQ) honoured Rane Group executive chairman L Lakshman with Jamshetji Tata Award for his 'contribution to the Indian society through his exceptional leadership and his holistic focus on quality'.

According to a press release, the award was presented by Dr V Krishnamurthy, chairman, National Manufacturing Competitiveness Council, at a function held in Delhi recently.

Jamshetji Tata Award is given to industry leaders who have made significant contribution to the Indian society through their work of leading an organization with exceptional and holistic focus on quality. The award is given to those who have demonstrated outstanding results and are role models.

Accepting the award Lakshman said, 'To be nominated for an award named after the greatest of industrial builders of India and the visionary who established the Indian Institute of Science is a great honour indeed.'