5. Rane Foundation

Rane foundation, a public charitable trust established in the year 1967, is the main arm for the CSR projects of Rane Group. The foundation is governed by a Board of Trustees. The contributors are the Rane group companies. The Companies will contribute to social and environmental betterment by channelizing about 80% of its CSR corpus through Rane Foundation. The remaining CSR Corpus is allotted for development activities by the company itself.

5.1 Why Rane Foundation?

Rane Foundation's projects are focused on education, healthcare, environment and community development which are well aligned with Rane Group's CSR vision. With a special focus on education, more details on Rane Foundation's projects are mentioned here. Based on its past experience, Rane Foundation has been engaged as the main implementation partner to:

- identify projects aligned with the focus area and CSR legislation
- execute approved projects on behalf of the Companies
- ensure the quality of project execution and reporting

6. Key Focus Areas

Rane Group actively promotes and engages in activities that help strengthen communities and contribute to the enrichment of society. Rane Group believes in good corporate citizenship that strives for creating maximum impact in the following areas.

6.1 Education

Education is at the forefront of Rane Group's efforts to be a socially responsible corporate citizen. Many of Rane Group's projects are designed as high-impact programmes to bridge the vocational skills gap between the market demands and employability of the nation's youth. For instance, realizing the lack and importance of quality technical education, Rane Group supports to provide holistic technical education that enhances skills and employability amongst rural youth.

6.2 Health Care

Rane Group believes that improved general health of the population is a key indicator to a strong society. Rane Group's healthcare projects are centered on creating awareness and enhancing medical infrastructure in needy regions to prevent and treat illnesses.

6.3 Environment

Rane Group is conscious of the imperatives of the need to protect environment and natural resources for achieving sustainable growth. Rane Group has undertaken several projects in this regard such as conservation of energy, water and eco-friendly waste management systems. Apart from creating a significant green cover around the plant, Rane Group engages in numerous activities such as tree plantation drives, awareness campaigns, etc. to promote good environmental habits amongst all.

6.4 Community Development

Rane Group's Community Development projects shall focus on creating sustainable development and livelihood enhancement opportunities for the communities.
