

Rs. 10 lakh for tourism project at Sithannavasal

To be utilised for setting up an arch at the entrance

Special Correspondent

PUDUKOTTAI: Individuals and institutions have been contributing their mite for the tourism development project being executed at Sithannavasal, a Jain monument near here.

Harish Lakshmanan, director of Rane Holdings, donated Rs.10 lakh for this purpose. He gave away the cheque to A. Suganthi, District Collector, recently.

The funds would be utilised for setting up an arch at the entrance to Sithannavasal, a press release from Mr. Harish Lakshmanan said here today.

The district administration in coordination with various CONTRIBUTION: Harish Lakshman, right, Director, Rane Holdings, presenting a cheque to Collector A. Suganthi in Pudukottai.

departments including the Agriculture, Agricultural Engineering and local bodies has been taking efforts to develop the tourism potential of this Jain monument.

An artificial lake had been set up recently at the site, where a boat club was declared open.