

PRESS RELEASE

Rane sponsors TATA's first Prima Truck Racing event

Chennai, India – March 12, 2014

Rane Group today announced its participation in T1 PRIMA Truck Racing Championship. Tata Motors will host inaugural racing event of Truck Racing Championship on March 23, 2014 at Buddh International Formula 1 Circuit in Greater Noida.

Six truck racing teams will compete in the T1 PRIMA Truck Racing Championship and each team will be owning Two (2) trucks of Tata Motors Model PRIMA 4038 S. These trucks are tailor made for the racing championship.

“Rane Group’s business partnership with TATA Motors is more than 40 years old and we are delighted to sponsor Tata Motors’ T1 PRIMA Truck Racing Championship” said Mr. L. Ganesh, Chairman, Rane Group companies.

“Tata Motors values Rane Group’s continuous efforts to provide quality products and to improve TATA Motors vehicles’ reliability & safety. Tata Motors appreciates Rane Group’s support of TATA truck racing event” said Mr.Ravi Pisharody, Executive Director, Commercial Vehicles, Tata Motors Limited.

Visit <http://www.t1primatruckracing.com/> for more details about the event.

About Rane Group

Incorporated in 1936, Rane Group today is a group of leading auto component manufacturing companies based in Chennai, India. Rane group clocked USD540 Million turnover in the Financial Year 2012-13. Rane manufactures engine components, suspension components, steering systems, friction materials, occupant safety systems and Diecast components and is a leading supplier to many OEMs in India and Overseas.