1. Preface

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of respective Rane Group Companies have adopted this policy to determine materiality of events or information that requires disclosure pursuant to the provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time. Further, the Board will review the policy from time to time and propose appropriate amendments, if any required.

2. Scope

The policy is framed based on the provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 [SEBI (LODR)]¹:

- (i) To determine the disclosure framework for the Company with respect to determining materiality of events or information for accurate and timely disclosure of the same to the stakeholders.
- (ii) [To assist relevant employees in identifying any potential material event / information and report the same to authorised Key Managerial Personnel.]²

3. Definitions

- a) “Policy” means this Material Event or Information Disclosure Policy.
- b) All words and expressions used in this policy shall have its meaning as defined in the SEBI Act, Companies Act, 2013, the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, the Depositories Act, 1996 and / or the rules and regulations, [applicable Industry Standards]³ made thereunder shall have the same meaning as respectively assigned to them in such Acts or rules or regulations or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereto, as the case may be.

4. Criteria for determination of materiality of events / information

4.1. The Company shall consider the following to determine the materiality of any event / information:

- (a) Whether omission of disclosure is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- (b) Whether there would be a ‘significant market reaction’ if such event / information is known to public on a later date; or
- (c) [Whether the omission of an event / information, has value or the expected impact value exceeding the lower of the following:
 - (i) Two percent of turnover as per the last audited consolidated financial statements;
 - (ii) Two percent of net worth as per the last audited consolidated financial statements except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - (iii) Five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements.]⁴
- (d) In any other case, where the Board of Directors are of the opinion that such event / information is material.

² Inserted vide Version 1.3.

³ Inserted vide Version 1.5.

⁴ Inserted vide Version 1.3.

[Threshold shall be determined on the basis of audited consolidated financial statements of last audited financial year. However, if the company has not prepared consolidated financial statements in the last financial year, the threshold may be determined on the basis of audited standalone financial statements.]⁵

[Instances where all of the three parameters specified under para 4.1 read with regulations for the time being in force (viz., profit / net worth / turnover) are not be relevant to an event / information, the Company may refer to applicable Industry Standards, notified by SEBI from time time, for guidance on which of the relevant and appropriate parameter ought to be considered for determination of materiality for different types of events.]⁶

4.2. The Board may consider an event / information which relates directly or indirectly to the Company, specified in Annexure I to this policy, to be material, if it is likely to fall in one or more of the following categories / to impact the Company or the Rane Group:

- a) Event /information considered material in terms of the guidelines detailed in para 4.1 of this policy.
- b) Information, if published, is likely to materially affect the price of the shares of the company.
- c) In cases where (a) or (b) or both are not applicable, an opinion on materiality can be formed based on relevant facts and circumstances, taking into consideration
 - (i) Possible direct / indirect impact on the reputation / brand / goodwill, etc., of the Company and Rane Group.
 - (ii) Likelihood of resulting in a false market for securities of the Company.
 - (iii) Disclosure may put the business interests of the Company and Rane Group at risk.

5. [Timelines:

[The timelines for making disclosures to the stock exchanges would begin once an officer of the listed entity has become aware of the occurrence of an event /information, through credible and verifiable channels of communication. The term 'officer' shall have the same meaning ascribed to it under section 2(59) of the Companies Act, 2013.]⁷

The Company shall disclose to the stock exchanges any such material events / information within such timelines as applicable to each such event / information under SEBI (LODR) Regulations.]⁸
